

DV-510-INFO I Filled Out the Forms—What Now?

- 1 Take your forms to the court clerk. The clerk will give your forms to the judge. The judge will look at them and decide whether to make the order. Sometimes the judge will want to talk to you. If so, the clerk will tell you.
- 2 Find out if the judge made the temporary restraining order. Ask the clerk when to come back to see if the judge signed the order (Form DV-110). The judge must decide by the next business day. Check to see if the judge made any changes.
- 3 “File” the judge’s order. If the judge signs the order, the clerk will “file” it. The clerk will keep the original for the court and give you 5 “filed” copies. If you need more, make them yourself.

What to do with your copies:

- Keep 1 copy with you, always. You may need to show it to the police.
- Keep another copy in a safe place.
- Give a copy to anyone else protected by the order.
- Take copies to places where the restrained person is ordered not to go (school, work, daycare, etc.)
- Give a copy to the security officers in your apartment building and workplace.

Restraining orders get entered into CLETS, a statewide computer system that lets police know about your order. The court will send the order to law enforcement or CLETS for you.

- 4 Know your hearing date.

Look at Form DV-110 for the date and time of your hearing.

You must go to your hearing to get a permanent order.

The order you have now only lasts for about 3 weeks.

4 Court Hearing Date (Fecha de la Audie)
Clerk will fill out section below.

Hearing Date	Date: _____
	Dept.: _____

To the person in (2): At the hearing, the judge can also make other orders about your children. You can also want the orders against you, file and serve

5 “Serve” the restrained person.

Ask someone you know, a process server, or law enforcement to personally “serve” (give) the restrained person a copy of the order. You cannot send it by mail.

The server must:

- Be 18 or over
- Not be protected by the orders

Law enforcement will serve the orders for free, but you have to ask.*

A “process server” is a business you pay to deliver court forms. Look in the Yellow Pages under “Process Serving.”*

Don't serve by mail!

*If law enforcement or the process server uses a different Proof of Service form, make sure the form lists all the forms served.

6 File your Proof of Service (Form DV-200).

The Proof of Service shows the judge and police that the restrained person got a copy of the order. Make 5 copies of the completed Proof of Service. Take the original and 5 copies to the court clerk as soon as possible before your hearing. The clerk will keep the original and give you back the copies stamped “Filed.” Bring a copy to your hearing.

Keep 1 copy with you and another in a safe place in case you need to show it to the police. Give the other copies out as you did in (3). The court will send your completed Proof of Service to law enforcement or CLETS for you. CLETS is a statewide computer system that lets police know about your order.

- If the sheriff serves your order, he or she will send the Proof of Service to the court and to CLETS for you.

7 If the restrained person wasn't served . . .

The restrained person must be served before the hearing. If the restrained person wasn't served, fill out Form DV-125 to ask the judge for a new hearing date. Do this before or at your hearing. (If you wait until after the hearing, you have to start from the beginning.)

If the judge signs this order, the restraining order will last until the new hearing date.

- File the signed order (Form DV-125) with the clerk. The clerk will send it to law enforcement or CLETS for you.
- Attach it to your other court papers and get the restrained person served.
- If you didn't file the original Proof of Service, bring it to your hearing.
- Bring a copy of Form DV-125 to your hearing.

After serving the orders, the server fills out and signs the Proof of Service and gives it to you.
