

Sample Findings Regarding Rebuttal of Domestic Violence Presumption

The court also finds the following:

1. [Name of party] submitted sufficient evidence to raise the presumption under Family Code section 3044(a) that the award of custody to [name of other party] would be detrimental to the best interest of [name of child]. Specifically, the court considered the following evidence: [recite synopsis of evidence relevant to child's best interest].
  2. The court has considered each of the rebuttal factors in Family Code section 3044(b).
  3. The presumption of detriment has [not] been overcome by a preponderance of the evidence.
- The following custody and visitation orders are in the best interest of [name of child]: [specify sole or joint legal or physical custody arrangements].