

WHAT WOULD YOU AND YOUR PARENT/GUARDIAN SAY?

WHAT WOULD YOU AND YOUR PARENT/GUARDIAN SAY?

Teen Statements

You and your parent/guardian will fill out similar queries. After completing this exercise take the opportunity to discuss your perspectives on these topics with your parent/guardian.

Please read the incomplete statements in the first column and complete the statement in the second column. In the third column, write how you think your parent/guardian would respond to the incomplete statements.

Incomplete Statements	What would you say?	What would your parent/guardian say?
The most common drug of choice for teens is . . .
My driver has been drinking and I need to get home in time for my curfew. I would . . .
The reason teens use drugs or alcohol at parties is to . . .
Most teens get their drugs or alcohol from . . .
Youth start taking drugs or drinking about the age of . . .
My curfew during the week and weekend should be . . .
The most important thing my parent/guardian can do to help me make good decisions about drinking and driving is . . .
The hardest decision I have to make about drinking or using drugs is . . .
The person I talk to about important problems or decisions is . . .
Binge drinking is . . .

If I were to come home drunk or under the influence of drugs, my parent/guardian would . . .
The best way my parent/guardian can help keep me from drinking or using drugs and driving is...
If my parent/guardian was not home, and I were to have an alcohol party without permission, and a teen drank, got behind the wheel, and hit or killed someone in a crash, the person who would be liable would be . . .
The biggest goal in my life is...		